

Sam Tripoli's Theory About the Next Election Cycle

The Joe Rogan experience You had a conspiracy for us at dinner but you but Joe made you wait what was it Well what's gonna happen You know what's gonna happen with What with in this country you are here now we're in the Bolshevik war right now bro And right now what's coming up is the all the pride stuff is gonna be OK So I had this woman come on my podcast Her name's Mel Kay And we got in real trouble on this show before because we talked about this one family that I will not name OK And every time we name this family the four tech gods all came down and just fucked my show the Rothschild All of no no Hey I'm not saying the name I'm trying to tank his own show That's how much he loves the deep state So she comes out again We just mentioned what happened on the show They do it to us again They do it to us again We just mentioned their name Go You remember when we talked about them and they took it happens again So what are they doing when this happened Let me say they do this to you What do they do to you Ok So on app so Apple Google Twitter and Facebook all asked me how so like shadow band suppression No no even worse even worse So on uh on Apple they listed my podcast that no one listened to it for like like they showed nobody listening to the podcast So they blocked people from listening to like when you go to like see what you do how your your your podcast is doing it Listen No not not just one episode multiple episodes I got strikes and deletes on my youtube channel and all my Facebook I couldn't get into my Facebook Yeah So it was just like boo boo boo boo all on one thing What did you mention that this family had done This is funny because it involves it involves something to Brian that basically this family is so rich that people think that the CFR is just basically their board of trustees of all other companies the CF Foreign Relations they're your babysitters bro Come on they're the people who taught you how to Yeah Yeah They're the ones who taught you how to tie your fucking shoes My favorite Joe is like you don't believe in conspiracy theories because you love your dad So Mel Mel Kay comes on my show and she's like I've been and this is she goes I've been talking to some people in the intelligence and they go this gay pride stuff is going away and the next thing you're gonna see our immigration riots this is gonna be right around the the next election So hand of God we do this episode next day Starbucks is like we're banning all the pride stuff And now you start seeing these little they're putting little bread crumbs out man little bread crumbs Oh I saw this one thing in Chicago Oh yeah illegal immigrants are upset about where there's and these illegal immigrants who speak no English are holding up perfectly written English signs saying we're tired of how we're being treated and now you're starting to see this over and over again Eric So everyone's always like when when all these Republican governors are like sending these these immigrants all over the country and it's like yeah you're showing those democrats bro they're moving assets I know it sounds crazy but that is 100 what is percent They're moving assets What do these guys coming into the country bro There Have you seen them A lot of them are Chinese and a lot of them are military people And I'm telling you they're moving and this is what's gonna be right around 2024 election immigration riots people going nuts and as as listen to this and you'll start seeing all the little breadcrumbs being paid out May I give you another scenario May I give you another possible scenario I hate to piss on your parade What if we do have open borders Thank you Joe Biden and and a complete disaster down the border And so governors like Greg Abbott are going not How about you guys want a taste of what we're dealing with Hey New York Here you go They bust 13,000 immigrants in New York Eric Adams goes we don't have the resources for that Brian And that's a good way to teach the blue states to change their border That's what they want you to think That's how you get This is right Look I'm a puppet master I'm telling you that's who they want you to buy assets bro They're moving as military people study the Bolshevik war It is happening in real time 100% But I just wanted to get that out to everybody because I'm trying to warn people This is what's next
